

Ausbil appoints Deputy Head of Equities

Media release

Sydney – October 2015

Ausbil Investment Management is pleased to announce that Gian Pandit has joined the Firm as Deputy Head of Equities.

Gian will be part of the Portfolio Construction Committee along with Paul Xiradis, Chief Executive Officer and Head of Equities, and John Grace, Co-Head of Equities.

Gian has had an impressive career history, most recently as Senior Portfolio Manager/Co-Head Fundamental Equities at AMP Capital, following senior positions with ING Investment Management, Consolidated Press Holdings and Deutsche Bank.

Paul Xiradis said “we are very pleased to attract an executive of Gian’s calibre. He has an excellent track record of investment outperformance and portfolio construction and he will add considerable additional strength to our management capabilities.”

Gian said “I am delighted to be joining Ausbil. Its philosophy of Alpha generation and capital preservation for its clients resonates very well with me. Ausbil is one of the strongest equity boutiques in Australia, driven by a performance-orientated culture with a very collegiate team. I am really looking forward to being part of this well established firm.”

Adam Dixon is moving away from the Portfolio Construction Committee to concentrate on his role as ESG Specialist.
