

Ausbil appoints new Head of Institutional Business

Media release

Sydney – April 2015

Ausbil Investment Management is pleased to announce that Ross Youngman has commenced as Head of Institutional Business.

Ross has had an impressive career history, most recently as CEO and Executive Chairman of Five Oceans Asset Management, following positions with Deutsche as CEO of Deutsche Asset Management in Sydney and as the Head of their US Mutual Fund Business. Prior to this, he was at Bankers Trust where he was Head of BT Funds Management New York.

Paul Xiradis, Chief Executive Officer and Head of Equities at Ausbil, said: "Ross was the outstanding candidate and we are very pleased to appoint an executive of such high calibre." "Ross has a demonstrated ability to direct and implement sales initiatives and manage external relationships, including consultants, clients and strategic prospects, across institutional, retail and alternatives channels. He also has significant leadership experience across large and small executive teams covering investment, distribution and operational personnel," said Mr Xiradis.

Ross Youngman added: "I am very happy to be joining a quality domestic equities house like Ausbil. It has an excellent track record and will benefit from its partnership with New York Life Investment Management, which has more than US$500 billion in assets under management."

Ross will start at Ausbil on Monday, 20th April 2015.

Ausbil Investment Management is a Sydney based Asset Management Company that manages over $10bn across various asset classes for a range of domestic and international Institutional clients. Ausbil is owned by its employees and New York Life Investment Management, which has more than US$500 billion in assets under management.
