5 Tax status

All investors must complete this section

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) is a US tax law which imposes obligations on all Australian financial institutions. The purpose of FATCA is to increase transparency regarding US citizens and residents who hold offshore assets.

Ausbil is required to identify, collect and report directly to the ATO various account-related information of any investors deemed to be a US person. We are obliged to collect the information from our investors as shown below.

If section 5 is not completed, we may be required to report any non-compliance to the US authorities via the ATO.

Country of residence for tax purposes

Complete one of the relevant fields below if you wish to change your country of residence for tax purposes.

Country of residence for tax purposes (if not in Australia)

Tax file number (resident of Australia for tax purposes)

Select one option to indicate the relevant category and if required provide further information requested.

- FATCA exempt. For example, investors have no affiliation with the US, are not US citizens and hold no assets (directly or indirectly) in the US.
- An individual who is a US citizen or resident of the US for tax purposes

Please provide the entity's US Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

A company, partnership, trust or association established under the laws of the US or US taxpayer
Please provide the entity's US Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

A financial institution or trust with a trustee that is a financial institution (i.e. custodial, depository institution, an investment entity or a specified insurance company for FATCA purposes)

Please provide the entity's Global Intermediary Identification Number (GIIN)

If the financial institution does not have a GIIN, please tick one box to clarify its FATCA status:

GIIN applied for but not yet issued

Non-reporting IGA FFI (listed in Annex 11 of IGA)

Resident of non-IGA country or not otherwise subject to IGA deemed compliant exempt beneficial owner

Non-Participating FFI

GIIN applied for but not yet issued

A proprietary company, partnership, trust or association that is not a financial institution as described above and in the preceding reporting period either:

- earned 50% or more of its gross income from distributions, dividends, rental, interest or other investment income; or
- held 50% or more of its assets in shares, properties, bonds or similar investment assets that generate passive income.

If you ticked this category, are any of the (as relevant) shareholders holding a controlled interest (i.e. holding more than 25% of the company), or are any of the partners, beneficiaries, trustees or settlors US citizens or US taxpayers?

7 Facsimile Indemnity

If you are instructing us via facsimile (including applications, withdrawal requests and switching requests) you acknowledge the following conditions:

- We will process your facsimile instructions if it has been received by us in full. We bear no responsibility for any loss or delay that may be incurred from a transmission not being received by us. A facsimile receipt confirmation from the sender's facsimile machine is not evidence that the facsimile has been received.

- We bear no responsibility for any fraudulently completed facsimile transactions and will not compensate you for any losses. For instance, you uphold the risk that a facsimile may be sent by someone who knows your account details.

8 Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA)

The Fund is registered as a Reporting Australian Financial Institution in accordance with the intergovernmental agreement entered into between the Australian and United States (US) governments regarding FATCA on 28 April 2014 (IGA). As a Reporting Australian Financial Institution, due diligence will be carried out on prospective investors in the Fund and on existing unit holders. Prospective investors (including existing unit holders applying for additional units) will be required to supply us with certain information and/or documentation when applying for units. Existing unit holders will be required to supply us with certain information and/or documentation on request.

Information regarding certain unit holders and their unit holdings in the Fund will be reported to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). Generally, information will be reported to the ATO in respect of unit holders who are:

- U.S. citizens or residents,
- certain types of U.S. entities, or
- certain types of non-U.S. entities that are controlled by one or more U.S. citizens or residents.

We are also expected to report to the ATO the details of any payments we make to 'Non-participating Financial Institutions', as such term is defined in the IGA. If you are an existing unit holder and you do not provide us with the necessary documentation upon request we may be obliged to report information in respect of you and your unit holding in the Fund to the ATO. If you are a new investor (including an existing unit holder applying for additional units) and you do not supply us with the necessary information and/or documentation on request, we may not issue units to you. Alternatively, we may report information regarding you and your unit holding in the Fund to the ATO. As per the IGA, the ATO will share information reported to it by Australian financial institutions with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. For additional information on how our due diligence and reporting obligations under the IGA may affect you, please consult your tax adviser.
